

Game designer

Can you design a simple board game that teaches people how to be a good sport? Think about what means to be a good winner and how someone can loose well. What type of person would you like to play a game with? How would they act?

On the second sheet is an example template you could use for your game.

